

Transportation Bill Calls for $500 Million

By DOUGLAS B. CORNELL

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Kennedy proposed a $500 million handout to traffic-strangled cities today and dangled hopes of eventual bargain rates before the nation's air, rail and bus travelers. Kennedy huddled up his ideas in a 10,000-word transportation message and sent it off to Congress. He ignored former President Dwight D. Eisenhower's recommendation for creation of a government department of transportation.

The $500 million would be only a first installment, spread over three years, to be given to public agencies. They would put up some partially matching funds and use the combined federal-local money for "the revitalization and needed expansion of public mass transportation."

For the traveling public and for bulk freight—grain, coal ore—and farm and fishery products, Kennedy suggested that Congress end minimum rates prescribed under federal regulation. Just what passengers on what lines might get lower rates in time was not spelled out. But federal officials said they hoped for some "bargain rates to attract people away from cars" as well as for congressional action to prevent price wars.

The rate and mass transit recommendations, and a string of others, were parts of a vast, long-range attack on complicated, controversial problems Kennedy said "are burdening our national transportation system, jeopardizing the progress and security on which we depend."

In general, Kennedy spoke for continued reliance on private transport and for what he termed fundamental, far-reaching reforms in federal policies—reforms designed to downsize regulating and subsidizing and make carriers "fit, lean and progressive by vigorous competition and innovation."

Canceled last year, delayed this year, the transportation message was the last of a series Kennedy planned to offer to the present Congress in amplification of his program for the country.

Facets of it may stir up storms of discord in Congress and outside. But Kennedy nevertheless urged Congress to get started as soon as possible.

The recommendation for exemption from minimum rate regulation for carriers of passengers, bulk commodities and farm and fishery products, Kennedy said, would get at the most critical and controversial problems of all in the area of unneeded regulatory curbs. For airline passenger traffic, Kennedy said it might be a good idea to start on a gradual, trial basis.

As things stand now, only water carriers have the exemption with respect to bulk freight and only motor carriers and freight forwarders with respect to agricultural and fishery products.

Warren Testifies in Milk Hearing

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—John H. Warren, general manager of the Borden Co., at Little Rock, was the witness today in the Federal Trade Commission hearing on charges against the Central Arkansas Milk Producers Association and its secretary-manager, David L. Parr.

Parr concluded his third day of testimony Wednesday, and is expected to return to the stand later for cross examination by CAMPA attorneys.

His testimony Wednesday was concerned with CAMPA's activities in recruiting milk producers in new areas, and negotiations with various milk processing plants over the price of milk delivered to them. Correspondence concerning the price negotiations was introduced as evidence.

The FTC has charged CAMPA and Parr with conspiring to restrain or eliminate competition and with favoring certain milk processors with discriminatory prices.

Brief Filed Attacking State Laws

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—A brief was filed Wednesday with the Arkansas Supreme Court explaining why the attorney for a taxpayer attacking five of the state's major fiscal laws thinks the laws are unconstitutional.

James J. Hooker, a Little Rock shoe firm representative, is attacking the Revenue Stabilization Act, the General Accounting Act and three appropriations acts that control up to $600 million in state revenues. His attorney is D. D. Panich.

Panich, in his brief, argued that the Revenue Stabilization Act violates the constitutional prohibition against spending tax money for purposes other than those for which the taxes were levied.

He said the act changed the purposes for which some of the tax money was levied, unconstitutionally changed money from one fund to another and unlawfully delegated authority to the director of finance in certain matters.

Panich said the acts appropriating money for the Highway Department, the Education Department and the governor's emergency fund also were unconstitutional.

Hooker's suit is on appeal to the Supreme Court from the Pulaski Chancery Court, where Chancellor Guy E. Williams upheld the validity of the five laws Feb. 6.

Mrs. Russell to Direct Cancer Drive

Mrs. Carter Russell, 1512 Pecan St. Hope, will be the 1962 Cancer Crusade Director for Hempstead County. It was announced today by Mrs. Cecil Bittle, president of the Hempstead County Unit of the American Cancer Society.

The Annual Cancer Crusade which is a combination educational and fund raising effort will be held during the month of April. Funds raised will go to support the society's three fold program of Research, Education and Service.

In addition to raising cancer-fighting dollars, a leaflet listing the 7 Danger Signals of Cancer will be distributed by the volunteer Crusaders into every home in Hempstead County. The theme of the Crusade this year is to replace fear with HOPE, because cancer can be cured in many cases when discovered early and treated promptly.

Mrs. Russell said "An important new film entitled 'Life Story' which deals with cancer of the lower colon and rectum, the leading cancer site in incidence and death, due to the fact that it has a high rate in both men and women, will be one of the chief weapons of the Society's education program for the coming year. This film is available for showing to any club or organization in the country."

"The film 'Time and Two Women,' which tells how uterine cancer can be detected at an early stage, will be supplied for women's groups," Mrs. Russell said, "and the Society will also provide the films tips 'To Smoke or Not to Smoke' and 'The Cancer Challenge to Youth' for classroom use in local high schools. In addition, another film 'From One Cell,' designed to acquaint youngsters with the nature of cancer, will be scheduled for the use of General Science and Biology teachers."

U. S. Seizes, Offers for Sale Dermott Farm to Satisfy Judgment for Overplanting

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—The federal government seems to hold the upper hand in its running feud with Dermott rice farmer James Weir. It's threatening to sell his 994-acre Chicot County farm to satisfy a $16,972 judgment for overplanting his 1959 rice acreage allotment.

Weir was ordered to pay the judgment 10 days after it was issued by Judge J. Smith Henley on Feb. 12. It still was not paid on March 5, so U.S. Marshal R. Beal Kidd, at the direction of Henley's federal District Court, seized the land. The judgment was not paid by March 23, and Beal advertised the property for sale.

Weir responded Wednesday with a petition to postpone the sale until he appeals Henley's ruling to U.S. Court of Appeals at St. Louis. Weir, who lately has been acting as his own attorney, said in his petition he would suffer "grievous and irrevocable damage" if his farm should be sold before he had adequate time to make his appeal. Deadline for filing the appeal is April 12.

Asst. U.S. Atty. James W. Gallman said, however, the sale could be stopped only if Weir posted a bond in the amount of the judgment, interest and court costs. That amounts to almost $20,000. Weir has been feuding with the government over acreage allotments since about 1958. He says the allotments are unconstitutional.

Local Youths Involved in Burglary

Three teenage youths, two from Hope and one from Emmet, arrested Saturday night in connection with a burglary at Prescott, were released under $500 bonds, charged with burglary and grand larceny and will be tried in the Nevada Circuit Court April 16.

The youths are charged with breaking into Western Auto Store at Prescott where they took several guns, 83 boxes of shells and about $78 in money. Sheriff Horace Hale and Prescott Police Chief Clifford Johnson said the boys had gone off and shot the guns several times. The guns were fully loaded when the youths were apprehended after a chase in which their car was forced off the road in Prescott. Officers spotted the trio as they ran out of a Laundromat, jumped into a 1956 Ford and sped off.

Cost Estimates on Dams Lowered

WASHINGTON (AP)—Army Engineers have been able to lower cost estimates on three big dams in Arkansas by a total of $8.5 million because of favorable contract bids, it was reported Wednesday.

Col. Robert M. Tarbox of the Army Engineers told a Senate Appropriations Subcommittee the cost estimate at Beaver Dam in northwestern Arkansas was lowered by $4.5 million to bring federal cost down to $39.6 million. Costs on the Dardanelle Dam on the Arkansas River were decreased from $90 million to $87 million, and a $1 million decrease brought estimates down to $48.8 million for the Greers Ferry Dam.

Links Rostow, Rusk to Secret 'Sellout' Group

WASHINGTON (AP)—Edwin A. Walker, former Army major general, testified today that he regards Secretary of State Dean Rusk as a link with a mysterious secret apparatus bent on a "sell-out" of this country.

Walker also named Wall Whitman Rostow, a top State Department planner, as influential in a secret "control apparatus" which the ex-general said always followed "the soft line on communism."

Walker named these two in response to questions by Sen. E. L. Bartlett, D-Alaska.

Bartlett was pursuing details on Walker's general charge Wednesday that shadowy forces hand in hand with communism are eating at the American way of life.

Says Brazil Will Pay for Seizures

WASHINGTON (AP)—Brazilian President Joao Goulart has promised his government will make fair compensation for expropriated utility properties.

And, President Kennedy has accepted an invitation to visit Brazil sometime this year.

Those were the two major developments in two days of talks between the heads of state.

Goulart goes on to New York today.

The Brazilian president made his pledge of fair compensation in a joint communique issued Wednesday.

There have been protests in this country over seizure recently in Brazil of a subsidiary of the American-owned International Telephone & Telegraph Corp., and the attempted expropriation of a Canadian telephone firm's subsidiary.

Although the communique did not go into these instances it declared Goulart intends to maintain conditions of security which will permit private capital to perform its vital role in Brazilian economic development.

No date was set for Kennedy's visit to Brazil, but White House press secretary Pierre Salinger announced that Mrs. Kennedy planned to accompany the President.

Brazilian sources said August has been tentatively fixed as the date.

Guernsey to Form Council of Students

As a result of interest shown by students in gaining effective citizenship training, the student body of the Guernsey School today organized a student council. Officers to represent the students in this governing body for the coming school year are Bill Wilton, president; Carolyn Powell, vice president; Elaine Adams, secretary; Leslie Stephens, treasurer and David Norvell, reporter.

Active, intelligent participation in student council activities give the students a real opportunity to perform a vital, civic service, an opportunity to do in school those things which a good citizen is regularly called upon to do. They will have daily experience in the assumption of responsibility and in discharging it successfully.

A representative from this new group of officers will attend the District Student Council meeting in Prescott, April 5 and they will also be represented at the Arkansas Association of Student Council convention in Marianna on April 12. Sponsor for the newly organized group is Mrs. Murrell Fisk, Guidance Director.

In No Condition to Stand Trial

MONTGOMERY, Ala. (AP)—The trial of a man who apparently lived for 10 days in the basement of a drug store has been postponed until Friday because he was too sick to be brought to court.

The clerk of Recorder's Court said that Keith Healy, 42, who was supposed to have faced a drunkenness charge Wednesday, was in no condition to appear.

The store manager, R. M. Harrell, said he found Healy surrounded by 13 bottles of bay rum, a gallon of barbecue sauce, a gallon of soft drink syrup, 14 pounds of candy, a box of cigars and a can of cranberry sauce—all from the store's stocks.

Pleasure Tax Proposed by Kennedy

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Kennedy has proposed a federal tax on pleasure boats as one means of financing the purchase of additional land and water areas for public recreation.

Revenue measures recommended Wednesday by Kennedy in a bill he sent to Congress would bring in more than $1 billion if approved.

The Interior Department estimated that the boat tax alone would bring in about $45 million a year.

In an accompanying message Kennedy noted that Americans consider the outdoors free. "In fact, however," he wrote, "outdoor recreation programs have been supported through a combination of general revenues and special levies such as national park admissions, fishing and hunting stamps and licenses, and federal excise taxes on fishing tackle and sporting arms and ammunition."

In the bill Kennedy asked Congress to create a land conservation fund to "expand existing recreational resources to meet out present and future needs."

The President, who likes to go boating for relaxation, proposed a $5 a year tax on boats 14 to 16 feet in length, with an additional levy of $2 for each additional foot.

Fight Starts on Plan to Break Up Guard Units

By FRED S. HOFFMAN

WASHINGTON (AP)—Congressmen opened fire today on the Army's controversial plan to break up eight battle-starred National Guard and Reserve infantry divisions.

Meanwhile, the Army braced for a salvo of objections from another flank—governors of some of the 21 states affected.

Rep. Durward G. Hall, R-M., predicted the plan would touch off a major battle in Congress. He said it was another example of the administration's "flaunting the will of the Congress."

Rep. Melvin R. Laird, R-Wis., said he hoped Congress would be able to prevent the action, which the Army announced late Wednesday as part of a major reorganization scheme designed to build a trim, trained and ready-to-fight Reserve and Guard.

The plan contemplates reorganizing much of the manpower in the four Guard and four Reserve divisions into eight "more flexible" brigades of between 3,000 and 4,500 men each. Many units now part of the divisions would be assigned to support the regular Army is needed.

Although the Army avoided the term "eliminate," officers acknowledged that would be the practical effect. All that would be left would be their headquarters, which would supervise certain training and support operations. The eight divisions—some with histories dating back to the Revolution and most with many battle streamers:

Guard—34th Division of Nebraska and Iowa; 35th of Kansas and Missouri; 43rd of Connecticut, Rhode Island and Vermont; 41st of Florida and South Carolina.

Reserve—79th of Pennsylvania, Maryland and Delaware; 94th of Massachusetts; 96th of Arizona, Idaho, Montana, Utah, Washington and Nevada; 103rd of Iowa, Minnesota and Wisconsin.

At the same time, the Army plans a six-division force of priority National Guard divisions that would be ticketed for early call-up in an emergency to back up the 16 regular Army divisions. These first-ranked outfits would be kept at 75 to 80 per cent of their authorized strength, which will total about 15,000 when their structure is revamped. Most of them now number only about 9,000 men.

The Army did not name the priority divisions, but they are expected to include the 28th Infantry.

Sportsmen's Show Hit by Race Issue

ST. PAUL, Minn. (AP)—The Northern Sportsmen's Show, currently on view in Minneapolis, has taken corrective measures to the alleged discriminatory practices of an Arkansas exhibitor, Atty. Gen. Walter Mondale said today.

Mondale said investigation by his office on the basis of complaints had shown that Cherokee Village, a booth promoting sale of lots in an Arkansas area, had discriminated against Negroes. Booth personnel are registering visitors in an advertised contest in which a drawing for a sail boat is to be made. But Mondale said inquiry showed cards signed by Negroes and deposited in a box were covered with sheets of paper to mark them and later removed.

He said the show management had prevailed upon the exhibitor to discontinue the practice. "Discrimination because of color in public exhibitions cannot be permitted in Minnesota," Mondale concluded.

Cherokee Village is a vacation and retirement development near Hardy in Sharp County. It is not integrated.

Joe N. Basore, vice president of the Cherokee Village Development Corp., said, "Our personnel do not discriminate against anyone who wants to come by and register for a prize."

All Around Town

By The Star Staff

This is report card day at Hope Junior-Senior High School and parents are asked to be sure and check their children's grades.

As in the past the Hope Jaycees will hold a free Easter Egg hunt at Fair Park on Sunday, April 22. Details will be announced.

City Police are investigating an incident that occurred about 7:30 last night at the home of Murrell Fisk, 1012 West 5th Street. A bullet from a 22 cal. gun was shot through the window in the living room of the Fisk home.

City Firemen answered two calls this morning, one to a house fire at 527 North Walnut, the home of J. H. Griffin. The house was badly damaged. The origin was undetermined. Later Thursday morning the grease trap at Phillips 66 Station at 3rd and Harvey caught fire and was quickly put out by firemen. Only slight smoke damage resulted.

George Frazier of Roy Anderson Insurance Co., president of the Arkansas Insurance Association and State Secretary, Gene Fortson of Little Rock, are in Virginia attending a meeting of the National Insurance Association. They will return Monday.

The need for a cinder track field is becoming more and more apparent following a meet at Camden earlier this week when the Bobcats came in last behind Camden, Fordyce, Nashville, Fairview and Magnolia. The Juniors fared some better coming in second only to Camden. Hope is the only school in this section without a good cinder track. What really hurts is the local boys can't practice for days after any sizeable rainfall. The local track is simply too muddy. If fans ever expect Hope teams to show up well in track they'll have to help do something about a cinder track for practice and meets.

All lady Gaslight Bowlers are urged to attend a meeting at 8 o'clock tonight at the Chuck Wagon to make plans for a Second annual City Tournament.

Rail Men Fear Loss of 400 Jobs

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—Between 300 and 400 railroad men in the Little Rock area will lose their jobs if recommendations of a presidential commission are carried out, a railroad union representative declared here Wednesday.

R. G. Rogers, of Cleveland, vice president of the Brotherhood of Locomotive Firemen and Engineers, said the commission report called for slashing existing jobs in half and for wage reductions beginning at 15 per cent for road employees. He said railroad employees also would lose most of their rights now protected by collective bargaining.

Rogerson, who spoke to railroad employees, said the economy of central Arkansas alone would decline by about $2 million a year if 400 jobs were cut off in the Little Rock area, and warned that some 80,000 railroad workers over the nation would be put out of work.

The 15-member presidential commission was appointed to look into the railroad management's contention that work rules should be overhauled.

Rogerson said the unions are opposing the commission recommendations, but said there was room for compromise.

Co-ops Want to Build a Steam Plant

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—Arkansas
electric cooperatives are planning to ask the Rural Electrification Commission in Washington for a 100,000-kilowatt steam electric generating plant at Augusta and lay some 400 miles of transmission lines.

Harry L. Oswald, general manager of the Arkansas State Electric cooperative Corp., said Wednesday he hoped the money would be available by the end of this year. He said he thought construction could be completed by early 1966.

The Arkansas State Electric Cooperative Corp. is the generating and transmitting agency for the 18 electric cooperatives in the state.

Oswald said plans for the Augusta plant were now on the drawing board. The plant would provide all of the power for Woodruff, Farmers, First, Petit Jean and Craighead electric coopera-tives. Four of these co-ops now buy all their wholesale power from the Arkansas Power and Light Co. The Fifth-Craighead — buys part of it from AP&L.

The Augusta plant would exactly double in cost the output size of the Thomas B. Fitzhugh Generating Station now under construction near Ozark. Completion of the Ozark plant is scheduled for April 1963.

The proposed new power line would begin at Jonesboro and extend southeastward to about Marked Tree, southwestward to about Devils Bluff, westward to the Little Rock vicinity and back northeastward to a junction with the existing line of the Southwestern Power Administration. The SPA line runs from Van Buren to Water Valley in the northeast corner of the state.

The line would have several relatively short extensions and one extension loop to take power to the five cooperative areas being served. The five co-ops have about 50,000 power customers.

Phone Firms and Union Sign

RUSSELLVILLE, Ark. (AP) —
The Western Arkansas Telephone Co. has signed a contract with the Communications Workers of America, it was announced
Wednesday, and a National Labor Relations Board hearing on the matter may now be canceled.

John Edwards, executive vice president of the firm, said the contract would give a 2½ cent an hour raise to 115 employees.

The NLRB postponed its hearing on charges that the company was not bargaining in good faith to allow further negotiations between the company and the union.

The hearing was scheduled for Tuesday.

Employees approved union representation Nov. 15, 1960, by a vote of 61-59, Edwards said, and since that time have been negotiating for the contract.

GENERAL ROLLS AGAIN—On April 14, fast freights will take to the siding along an 87-mile stretch between Kennesaw and Ringgold, Ga., to let a 107-year-old locomotive puff by, making a commemorative run as one of the highlights of the Civil War Centen-nial's second year. The locomotive is the famous General, kidnapped by northern commandos and then recaptured after a long distance chase. General has been restored to approximately the way she looked 100 years ago. Only a few modern safe transportation devices have been added, such as an oil burner and air brakes. Local fire departments will supply water as there are no longer any water towers along the historic route.

turned into a towering mass of rock-hard ice 50 feet high.

Power Disrupted
at West Memphis

WEST MEMPHIS, Ark. (AP)— Electric power to part of this city's downtown business district was disrupted for about 30 minutes Wednesday when the boom of a big crane fell across a power line.

There were no injuries.
The power failure included the Crittenden Memorial Hospital, but electricity was restored before the hospital was forced to start its emergency generators.

The operator of the crane J. C.
McCain, leaped to safety seconds before the boom hit the line. Five other men working along side scrambled away as the big machine began to topple.

The crane was operating at the Spear & Wood Mfg. Co., a steel foundry.

Imposter Is Among 63 Released

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — Paroles were granted Wednesday to 63 convicts, including Dorothy Van Rippy, who entered Cummins Prison Farm last December under the name David Reginald Van Rippy—a bigamist and the father of two.

Her true sex was discovered after a medical examination at the prison farm, but State Penitentiary Supt. Lee Hensley said he had no authority to free her without a court order, and the woman made no effort to have the sentence set aside.

She was convicted and sentenced for bigamy Dec. 5, 1961, after entering a plea of guilty in Monroe Circuit Court. After her sex was discovered, she told prison authorities she had decided about 12 years ago to masquerade as a man.

She is listed as the former owner of a service station at Morrill-ton and a minister in the Church of Christ.

If her parole plan is accepted by Tennessee parole authorities, she will be released to live with relatives in Collinswood, Tenn.

The state Pardons and Parole Board considered 98 other convicts for paroles and recommended executive clemency for another. The name of the person recommended for executive clemency was withheld pending action by the governor.

State Parole Director W. P. Ball said most of those paroled will be released Saturday.

Buildings Damaged
at Trumann

TRUMANN (AP)—A fire of undetermined origin destroyed two buildings and damaged another here Wednesday night.

About 35 firemen from Trumann, Jonesboro, Marked Tree and Harrisburg battled the blaze from 4 p.m. to 10:30 p.m. Wednesday. They had it under control by 8:30 Wednesday night.

The Trumann Fabric Center and the Kudstoft Dry Goods buildings were destroyed, and the Dudley Furniture Store was heavily damaged.

The financial loss has not yet been determined, but it was estimated by firemen at $175,000.

James Newell, Trumann fireman, was overcome by smoke. He was hospitalized but later released.

Kennedy has a new rocking chair.
It was presented Wednesday by Foreign Minister J. A. Bonilla Atiles of the Dominican Republic, who said he noticed, on a visit to Kennedy last January, that "the chair he was using was not very pretty, in my opinion."

"I am happy to say that he reported he found the new chair quite comfortable," said the former minister, who is in Washington for a health checkup.

Double Winner for Producer

HOLLYWOOD (AP)—Film producer Jerry Wald emerged in excellent condition from surgery—and from a $3-million slander suit.
Wald, 49, underwent a lower spinal operation at Cedars of Lebanon Hospital Wednesday and is expected to remain there a week or 10 days.

He discovered after coming out of the operating room that a Superior Court jury had returned a verdict in his favor in a slander action brought by Jack Rosen-stein, publisher of the magazine
Hollywood Close-Up.

Rosenstein said Wald made slandorous remarks about him in 1959. Wald said Rosenstein told him "I'm going to blast you" after Wald stopped advertising in Rosenstein's magazine.

Injunction in Virginia Extended

RICHMOND, Va. (AP) — U.S. District Judge Oren R. Lewis extended today an injunction barring Prince Edward County from using public funds for private education so long as public schools are closed.

Lewis said the injunction would be effective until further order of his court.

He set up a timetable for filing of motions and said he would hear arguments on all of them May 18.

Negroes in Prince Edward, where public schools have been closed three years to prevent court-ordered integration, wanted Lewis to make the injunction issued last year—permanent. He barred Prince Edward from using public tuition grants for the education of children in private schools so long as public schools remained shut.

Lewis also ruled out county tax credits for contributions to a white segregated school so long as public schools were not operating.

White children in the rural Virginia county have been attending private segregated schools which were financed largely by the tuition grants until Lewis' ruling. Negro children, in the main, have been without formal education.

The Prince Edward case now is 11 years old. It was one of the original five passed on by the U.S. Supreme Court in its 1954 school desegregation decision.

Didn't Want Job But Re-elected

ASHLAND, Mo. (AP) — Lehman Wren, who didn't want it, was re-elected mayor of Ashland Tuesday when 55 voters wrote his name on their ballots.

"I'm tired of listening to belly-aches of other people—I wouldn't run again if they paid me," Wren said before the election.

Everyone else apparently felt the same way because nobody filed. Nobody else got a vote.

Ashland, a town of 465 residents, doesn't pay its mayor.

Seeing Red and Looking Red

GLOUCESTER, N.J. (AP) — The situation here is rather red, Freeholder Michael J. Conroy complains.

"Residents not only are seeing red, but looking red," he says.

It comes, Conroy contends, from mounds of red iron ore stored along the Philadelphia waterfront. Winds blow the dust across the Delaware River.

The dust is filtering into homes and soiling clothing, Conroy says. The Board of Freeholders asked Mayor H. J. Tate of Philadelphia to remedy the situation.

DOROTHY DIX

That Fateful Sixth Year

By HELEN WORDEN ERSKINE

Dear Helen: I have a confession to make. After six years of marriage, in which I've acquired a nice home and one child whom I adore, I am restless and unhappy. The plain truth is that I no longer love my wife.

She's a good woman, fine housekeeper and conscientious mother but — I cannot abide her. This makes me mean, cantankerous and heartless. The dreadful part is that the more I rail out at her, the meeker and more submissive she becomes. This disgusts me.

As a result I drink — anything to forget that I have to go home to her. I've seriously considered walking out but I hesitate to hurt her or the baby. I guess I just wasn't cut out to be a married man, having remained a bachelor till I was 30.

Now, horror of horrors, my wife wants more children. I don't. Perhaps if I could get away awhile, I might straighten up and become a person again. But for what? Go back to that doormat I married? — Restless Joad

Dear Restless: The only thing for you to do is find the courage to tell your wife just what you've told me. Maybe she feels the same way but hesitates to say so. At any rate, a frank talk is needed to clarify the atmosphere.

Your case is not unique. A doctor once told me that the crucial year in most marriages was the sixth. For some reason, maybe chemical, the relationship between husband and wife alters. The saving grace is the children, if any, or some crisis. When trouble strikes, human beings cling together. If things are going well materially during that fateful sixth year, watch out.

Check back to your courtship days. What attracted you to your wife? Try to recapture that early mood. Ask her to do the same. See this for the crisis it is and pull together for your own sakes as well as that of your child.

Dear Helen: I am a 17-year-old girl growing up in the constricted atmosphere of a home ruled by my narrow-minded, foreign-born parents.

A year ago I fell in love with a man twice my age but of the same nationality. His family and mine are close friends. He has a fine position and is upstanding in every way. My mother is aware of his interest in me but not that we've been dating. She says he is too old and thinks I should marry a boy who has a college education and is nearer my own age.

If either she or my father ever find out about my dating this man, I shall never hear the last of it. They would be hurt and disappointed in me for, to them, their daughter is perfect. Having no one else to turn to, I turn to you - Confused.

Dear Helen: If this man is as honorable as you think, he should have a frank talk with your parents and tell them of his feelings for you. To date him secretly is very wrong.

I fell in love when I was 17 with a man twice my age who was a friend of our family. My mother hit the ceiling. Because of her I stopped seeing the man. Looking back, I'm glad I did for, had we married, my life would have been very limited. Writing and not marriage became my career. But oddly enough, when I did marry many years later, it was to a man 17 years older than I. Then the differences in our ages did not seem so great.

Dear Helen: The banners are waving for you today! It's about time somebody beside myself had the nerve to tell off the mothers-in-law who are hellions.

My mother-in-law is forever telling me she gave me my husband and I should be grateful and do as she says. Because of her, I've had 20 years of hell and in this time given birth to nine children, eight of whom are living. She's made a weakling, a coward and a drunk out of their father. I'm pinning no cow-medals on myself, but I don't smoke, drink nor gad.

To keep things going I have a part-time job as does my elder daughter. My youngest is five and a half.

Of what profit to herself or others is such a mother-in-law? As I calm down it comes to me that there is compensation at least for my children. One thing is for sure. When they marry I'll keep my nose out of their affairs. - A Daughter - in-Law-Who-Has-Had-It

Picks Dodgers to Win the National Loop

By JOE REICHLER
Associated Press Sports Writer

NEW YORK (AP) — National League expansion to 10 teams and Los Angeles' move to a home park more suited to its talents should combine to bring a pennant to Walter Alston's Dodgers.

It figures to be another typically tight National League race, with at least four clubs hurling challenges at the Dodgers. San Francisco has the most power, St. Louis the strongest pitching, Milwaukee the best infield and Cincinnati the confidence of a defending champion.

The Dodgers lack one commodity to break the race wide open. They can't match the power of their rivals, excepting St. Louis, but they have better overall personnel, pitching, speed and defense than any other club.

The Giants, who could take it all if they get the pitching, probably will present the most formidable opposition to the Dodgers. The Reds still are a strong threat despite the loss of Gene Freese, the hard-hitting third baseman, with a leg fracture.

The Braves, short of front-line pitching despite the presence of the durable Warren Spahn-Low Burdette duo; and the Cards, relying on oldsters Stan Musial and Minnie Miñoso to supply much of the power, appear slated to battle it out for fourth place.

Pittsburgh, still uncertain of the availability of sore-armed Vern Law, their former pitching ace, seems doomed to finish at the top of the second division. A four-team scramble is envisioned for the seventh spot.

- The predicted finish:
1. Los Angeles
 2. San Francisco
 3. Cincinnati
 4. Milwaukee
 5. St. Louis
 6. Pittsburgh
 7. Chicago
 8. Houston
 9. New York
 10. Philadelphia

Pipers Stay Alive in ABL Tourney

CLEVELAND (AP) — The Cleveland Pipers, who have faced sudden death in three of their last five games, are still alive today in their try for the American Basketball League's championship.

Cleveland came from behind in the final quarter Wednesday night to whip the Kansas City Steers 116-114. Now the Pipers go into another contest Saturday night under the familiar sudden-death conditions, because the Steers won the first two games in the best-of-five series earlier this week at Kansas City.

Omaha Comets Set a Record

ST. JOSEPH, Mo. (AP) — The Omaha Comets, who set a tournament record of 124 points in their opener Tuesday, rallied from a 10-point deficit to beat the Omaha (A) Tigers 61-45 in the second round of the Women's National AAU Basketball Tournament here Wednesday.

Don'tstop Extends Win Streak

HOT SPRINGS, Ark. (AP) — Clyde Jennings' favored Dontstop now extended his victory string to four here Wednesday, defeating seven other opponents in the featured $5,000 Oaklawn Preview.

The brown gelding by Deep Sun and Double Diamond broke third, but took the lead before the quarter and raced home the winner by six lengths.

Loving Eyes, carrying the colors of Emile Faure and ridden by John Wells, took place honors three lengths in front of Davis and Bell's Wilson Street. W. D. Dunham's Tricky Chance was fourth.

Jockey Melvin Duhon handled the winner, guiding him over the four furlongs of fast track in :45 3-5, fastest time of the meeting for the distance and only two-fifths of a second off the track record of :45 1-5.

Dontstopnow, the odds-on favorite at 3-5, was undefeated in three outings at the Fairgrounds in New Orleans. He returned $3.20 straight Wednesday.

A crowd of 8,161 wagered $599,652 on the nine races.

Light Talk, winner of the 1961 Arkansas Derby, is expected to rule as a choice in today's $3,300 Miss Arkansas Purse.

The Jacnot Stable entry actually finished second in last year's derby, but was moved up to first when Bass Clef, the winner, was disqualified for lugging badly in the stretch run.

He will be making his second start of the current meeting in the six-furlong feature today.

Other 4-year-olds and up facing Light Talk will be Marion H. Van Berg's Rose's Gem, J. D. Askew's Touch of Venue, Mrs. S. Helen Sadacca's Dragon Killer, Jerome Derenzo's Silky Satin, Bayliff and Wise's Long Distance, Audley Farm's Leadstealer and P. F. Adwell's Alifrab.

The number of probable starters for Saturday's $25,000 added Arkansas Derby has been reduced to nine.

The Derby, which will climax the 43-day meet, will be contested at a mile and an eighth distance.

Those still regarded as probable starters are A. A. Arnold and H. Estopinal's Touch Bar, Alfredo Stable's Eidolon, Paxton Hart's Mamelot, the Jacnot Stable's Poland China, Helen W. Kellogg's Prince Dale, J. C. Pollard's Treasury Note, C. N. Wilson's Escudal and August Mueckler's Aeropolis and Speedy Nicky.

Aeropolis, Eidolon and Treasury Note, all of whom have scored impressive victories in their last outings, may share the role of favorite in the derby.

Porkers to Start Spring Training

FAYETTEVILLE, Ark. (AP) — The Arkansas Razorbacks, co-champions of the Southwest Conference, turn out 77 strong for spring football practice Friday, and Coach Frank Broyles has his hands full of problems.

Broyles has lost 14 lettermen and two assistant coaches since losing to Alabama in the Sugar Bowl game. He brings back 20 lettermen, and eight of them will not take part in spring drills so younger boys will have a chance to show what they can do.

The Hogs have about 24 days for workouts. Drills will end May 5 with a Red-White intra-squad game in War Memorial Stadium, Little Rock. The first Red-White game will be May 1 in Razorback Stadium, Fayetteville.

Broyles knows little about this team. He knows he will have to patch some major holes in his defense, and he knows his quarterbacks are going to have to carry a heavy running and passing load since some strong halfbacks graduated.

But the big question is just what can a crop of apparently strong young players contribute. For instance, Broyles has a quarterback agenda that would have read like a high school all-star squad roster two years ago. Besides letterman Billy Moore, there is redshirt Fred Marshall and youngsters Garland Ridenour of Fort Smith, Gordon Guest of Pine Bluff, Billy Gray of Helena, Harold Rhoden of Rogers, Dan Gibbs of Warren and Pat Girard of El Dorado.

Any of them could blossom into all-Southwest Conference players. Lettermen not taking part in the drills are ends Jim Grizzle and Hoover Evans, tackles Jerry Mazzanti and Danny Brabham, guards Ray Trail and Tommy Polk, center Jerry Linberger and fullback Billy Joe Moody.

Lettermen who will work this spring are end Jim John; tackles Dave Adams, Wes Bryant and Billy Clay, who lettered in 1960; guards Tommy Brasher, Gary Howard and Buddy Tackett; quarterback Moore; halfbacks Jesse Branch, Tommy Moore and Mike Edwards and fullback Jim Worthington.

Tech Splits a Doubleheader

RUSSELLVILLE, Ark. (AP) — Arkansas Tech took the first game of a baseball doubleheader 7-6 here Wednesday, but dropped the nightcap 7-0 to Arkansas State Teachers College.

Bud Dyer was the winning pitcher in the first game, and was aided in his victory by homers by Larry Burnett and Bob White.

ASTC batters were touching Tech pitchers practically all will in the second game, in which Don Peters pitched a six-hitter.

Paret to Be Buried in Florida

NEW YORK (AP) — The body of former welterweight boxing champion Benny (Kid) Paret is scheduled to be flown to Miami tonight for funeral services and burial near his adopted home.

The 25-year-old Cuban died early Tuesday of brain injuries suffered in a title fight with Emile Griffith at Madison square Garden on March 24.

More than 17,000 persons viewed the body at a Bronx funeral home Wednesday and police estimated nearly 2,500 persons were either inside the home, waiting in line or loitering nearby.

Earlier in the day Paret's widow, Lucy, learned from the New York State Athletic Commission that she will collect some $28,000 before taxes as Paret's share of the $50,000 purse from the Griffith fight.

Cook Named by DeWitt School

DEWITT, Ark. (AP) — Basketball coach Ducey Hutton has been named to succeed Sam Cook as football coach at DeWitt High School.

School Supt. R. H. Brotherton said Cook's contract was not renewed.

Hutton had coached five years at Trumann before coming this past season to DeWitt, where he took his team to the state basketball tournament at Little Rock. He also had been assistant football coach at Mena for five years.

Hutton, a native of West Memphis, received his B.A. degree from Mississippi College and continued his graduate work at the school.

He also teaches Spanish, history and civics.

Can't Cut Movies to Hour Shows

By CYNTHIA LOWRY
AP Television-Radio Writer
NEW YORK (AP) — Repeated attempts to convert popular motion pictures into one-hour television programs have usually fizzled because of too much plot in too little time, insists actor James Mason.

"The trouble is the abreviation," The British performer-producer-director explained. "They get so busy telling the story that they have no time left for scenes — and good scenes are what make an interesting show."

Mason, who recently finished playing the male lead in the movie adaptation of the shocker novel, "Lolita," will be playing Maxim de Winter Sunday night in a live adaptation of Daphne du Maurier's famous "Rebecca."

The play is one of NBC's "Theatre '62" series based on old hit movies—which so far has proved

TOP PICTURE SHOWS THE ENTIRE LAYOUT, WITH the lower pool in the foreground, the miniature waterfall in the center, and beyond that the partly-obscured upper pool.

THE DIFFERENCE IN WATER LEVELS BETWEEN THE two pools is only about a foot. Depth of upper pool is 31 inches, and of the lower pool 27½ inches. Circulation is obtained by a small pump powered with an old electric fan motor, which picks up the water from the lower pool and returns it to the upper pool.

THERE IS NO FLOAT-VALVE TO LET IN FRESH WATER to replace evaporation loss. Mrs. Nations merely adds water from a garden hose when the level shows an appreciable drop. Nor is there any overflow point for the lower pool, which might be advantageous in case of continuously heavy rains that could result in flooding. Mrs. Nations added.

MR. NATIONS OFFERED TWO CAUTIONARY REMARKS. First: The pump motor should be located well above the water level of the lower pool so that flooding couldn't reach and ruin the electric windings. And the foot of the pump should clear the bottom so as to avoid sucking up trash.

HIS SECOND CAUTION IS THIS: BOTH POOLS SHOULD be of concrete, to avoid loss of water through seepage when the hot temperatures of summer cause the earth to crack and shift. The pool floor is poured first, and then the walls.

THE STAR'S EDITOR VISITED THE NATION'S HOME with his camera on a tip from Mrs. Herbert Dodson, well known Hope gardener and landscaper.

CORPS Group to Be Tripled

WASHINGTON (AP) — The House has passed legislation that would authorize twice as much money and three times as many overseas volunteers for the Peace Corps.

The bill, sent to the Senate Tuesday by a 316-70 vote, would authorize a Peace Corps budget of $63.75 million for the year beginning July 1. Last year Congress voted $30 million to finance the training and assignment of 2,400 corpsmen to foreign posts.

Rep. Thomas E. Morgan, D-Pa., chairman of the Foreign Affairs Committee, said only 698 volunteers have been sent overseas so far. "The extra funds," he said, "would permit the number to climb to 10,000 by the end of 1963."

Both Democratic and Republican senators have said they expect little or no opposition to White's nomination.

Ernie Broglie, plagued by arm trouble last year after winning 21 games in the 1960 baseball campaign, has pushed the St. Louis Cardinals' rising pennant stock up another couple of points with his strongest pitching performance of the exhibition season.

The 26-year-old right-hander, taking a giant step along the comeback trail, fired 'em up Wednesday, flashing his 1960 form as he went seven innings and scattered six hits in the Cardinals' 7-5 victory over Philadelphia at Clearwater.

Now he's got Manager Johnny Keane hoping a winter's rest has taken care of the problems and put him in shape to take his place alongside Larry Jackson, Ray Sadecki, Bob Gibson, Curt Simmons and newcomer Ray Washburn as a starter for the pitching rich Cardinals.

In other fine pitching efforts, Ed Rakow went the distance for Kansas City to beat Cincinnati 3-1 at Tampa, Minnesota's Jack Kralick and Dick Stigman shut out Baltimore 5-0 with a six-hitter and Pittsburgh rookies Bob Veale, Jack Lamabe and Diomedes Olivo stopped Washington 2-0 on two hits at Fort Myers.

Meanwhile, the hitters lashed out as Houston thumped the Los Angeles Angels 20-5 at El Paso and San Francisco walloped Cleveland 18-17 in 11 innings at Phoenix for an amazing total of 60 runs and 74 hits in the two games.

Elsewhere, the New York Yankees edged Detroit 2-1 at Lakeland, Milwaukee defeated Boston 9-2 at Scottsdale, the Chicago Cubs nipped the Los Angeles Dodgers 6-5 at Mesa and the New York Mets beat the Chicago White Sox 6-4 at St. Petersburg.

Rakow, checked the Reds on eight hits while batterymate Haywood Sullivan gave the A's the runs they needed with a two-run homer off Joey Jay. The Twins used five walks, a two-run double by Bob Allison and Jim Snyder's two-run single for five in the eighth off Jim Lebew after the Orioles' Steve Barber had hurled four-hit ball for seven innings.

Bill Mazeroski's homer and Larry Elliot's third hit accounted for the Pirates' runs in their victory over the Nats. Roman Mejias, 3-for-3, slammed two homers and Hal Smith, Norm Larker and pitcher Dick Giusti each connected for one in the Colts' 21-hit attack. Giusti and Dean Stone limited the Angels to eight hits.

Home runs by Willie Mays, Orlando Cepeda, Bob Perry, Manuel Mota and Jim Davenport paced the Giants' 25-hit outburst but it took a single by Matly Alou to drive in the winner in the 11th. Willie Kirkland hit two homers in the Indians' 20-hit offensive. Home runs by Tom Tresh and Elston Howard off the Tigers' Phil Regan got the job done for the Yankees.

The Braves, leading 3-2 on Del Crandall's two-run single, put it away against the Red Sox with a six-run spree in the fifth as Lee Maye and Ed Mathews powered homers. The Cubs won it with a 4-run ninth, capped when Dodgers' rookie Nick Willhit walked in the winner with two out.

Trailing 4-3 in the sixth, the Mets beat the White Sox on Felix Mantilla's inside-the-park homer with a man aboard as Mike Hershberger and Floyd Robinson collided while chasing the ball.

Thinks Ruling by Court a Good Thing

By JOHN R. STARR

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—Word of a Supreme Court rule change in procedure in felony cases recently was the best news Thorp Thomas has had in nine years as an assistant attorney general.

The court said henceforth the attorney general's office has to argue in an appeal case only those points raised by the defense lawyer in his appeal brief.

Formerly, all points raised in a new trial motion in preliminary to an appeal—had to be argued by the attorney general regardless of whether the defense counsel raised them in his brief.

"The rule change should cut our work load tremendously," Thomas said. "I won't know how much until we've had a little experience with it."

While it will relieve the attorney general's office, the rule change will put an additional burden on private attorneys who now must make sure their appeal briefs list all allegations of error on which they hope to obtain a reversal of the verdict.

The rule change does not affect cases involving the death penalty. In these, the attorney general's office must argue against every objection raised by the defense lawyer during the entire trial, not merely those he raises in a new trial motion or on appeal.

Thomas does not object to extensive work in capital cases. "When a man's life is at stake, you want to be sure he has every chance," he says.

There are five steps to appealing a criminal conviction on basis of alleged error. The principal cause for which appeals are filed.

First, the defense lawyer must object to some proceedings or ruling by the trial judge. Then the judge either sustains or overrules the objection. If he overrules it, the lawyer states that he takes exception to the ruling. Then he lists it as an alleged error in his motion for a new trial. Finally, he lists it again in his appeal brief.

Thomas said he had worked cases where the defense lawyer made 60 or so assignments of error in his new trial motion and only argued one or two in his brief.

Under the old rule, Thomas had to argue against all 60 odd points. Now he will have to contest only the one or two.

In some cases, of course, like the one he is working on now, the defense counsel argues all his assignments of error in the brief. In such cases, the rule change won't affect the attorney general's work.

Thomas, a 38-year-old lawyer from near Alexander in Saline County, has handled criminal matters for three attorney's general. He first was hired by Ike Murray in 1953. After four years with Murray, he joined Atty. Gen. Bruce Bennett for four years. He has been on Atty. Gen. Frank Holt's staff for 15 months.

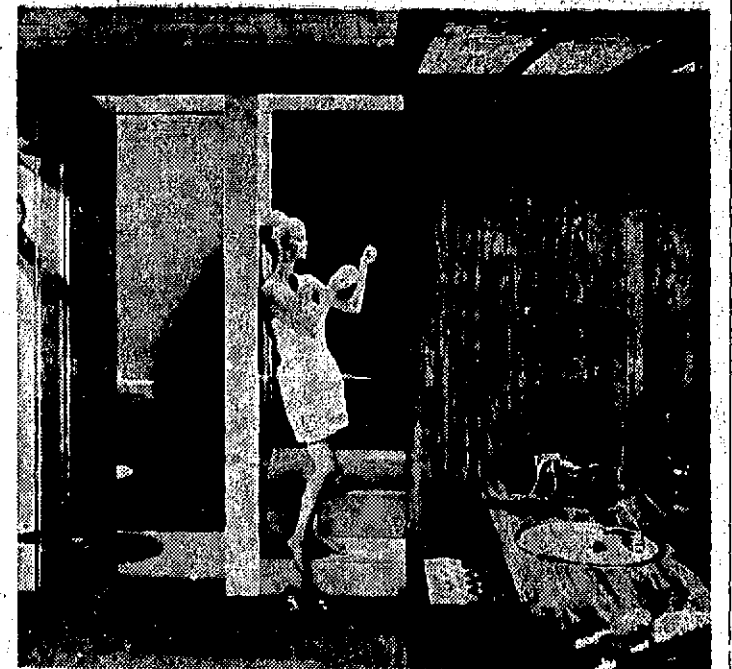

Thomas originally handled all criminal cases, but recently the load got so heavy he had to call for help on other assistant attorneys general.

The attorney general's office take over for the state in any criminal cases that gets past circuit courts. Prosecutors handle the state side in the lower courts.

Thomas is responsible for appeals filed both in the Arkansas Supreme Court and any federal court.

Thomas works on an average of 40 cases in state courts each year and four or five in federal courts. Each case may take weeks

IN FAMILY BATHROOM Good Plan Important

Larger bathrooms readily lend themselves to a versatile compartmented design, which assures greater convenience and more privacy. The lavatory area in this modern bathroom is particularly interesting since it has a wood grain finish, diffused lighting, double mirror, twin bowls, vanity and plenty of under counter storage space. Durable as well as decorative, the bathroom's colorful walls and ceilings are covered with plastic-surfaced Marlite paneling in a variety of colors and patterns in addition to the high-fidelity woodgrain around the lavatory. The paneling goes over existing walls or new framing, and does not require any painting or future refinishing. Marlite, which is available at local lumber dealers, can be used in new construction as well as remodeling.

BANKING ON DEATH

BY EMMA LATHEN

THE STORY: Capt. Peter Self of the Buffalo police interviews the widow of the murdered Robert Schneider. Mrs. Kathryn Schneider had been separated from her husband prior to the slaying.

Chapter 16

"He never mentioned anything about his family, or expecting to come into money," Kathryn Schneider snapped. "Captain Self, there's no way to make a normal human being understand about my husband. He was crazy. He didn't think of anything but himself and his work." She whirled and put her hands out before her, as if trying to make a recalcitrant student understand something. "Look," she said heatedly.

of work.

The two cases which have given him most headaches during his tenure are the Emmett Earl Leggett murder case and the Luther Bailey rape case.

The Leggett case was heard by the Arkansas Supreme Court and U.S. Supreme Court half a dozen times before Leggett finally was electrocuted in 1960, 5½ years after the murder of a 14-year-old Jacksonville boy for which he was accused.

The Bailey case was argued in state and federal courts nearly six years before the U. S. Circuit Court of Appeals reversed the death sentence and ordered a new trial.

Bailey was tried again for the 1956 rape of a white Little Rock housewife and again he was sentenced to die. For Thomas, the long, laborious appeal battle begins again.

But perhaps, this time, he will be able to turn it over to one of his assistants. For Thomas now is thinking about running for attorney general if Holt vacates the office. Holt reportedly will run either for governor or a Supreme Court post.

Besides Thomas, only his former boss, Bennett, has indicated an interest in the job.

Why Are the Restaurants Dimly Lit?

By HAL BOYLE

NEW YORK (AP)—Jumping to conclusions:

Many of the world's top restaurants have one thing in common—they are usually dimly lit. Why?

One theory is that it satisfies an unconscious human need—that from his caveman past man has enjoyed eating his food in the dark.

A more probable reason is that middle-aged women, who control the spending of the real folding money, don't feel comfortable under bright lights that cruelly show their years.

According to a recent news story, it now costs from $300 up to give a cat or dog a stylish funeral. But isn't anyone who spends that kind of money to bury a pet a victim of twisted emotions and mistaken values?

One sign that the population is getting older is the wide popularity of the New York Mets baseball team, managed by Casey Stengel, the plump boy for girls over 65. Everyone who has ever had a twinge of rheumatism is rooting for the old-timer to make a comeback.

Conformity has reached a point where some men today are afraid to wear a red necktie for fear someone will think they are secret Communists.

You can't really trust a man who orders a martini with a cherry in it instead of an olive or onion. He's bound to be a showoff.

Most of the people who denounce today's teen-agers couldn't attend classes with them and pass the tests they do.

The best way to cure an introverted boy with an inferiority complex is to sign him up for a hitch in the U.S. Marines. No other organization does a better or quicker job of building up self-confidence.

Every hatcheck girl dreams of marrying a playboy millionaire, but after 10 years of standing on her feet she's usually glad to let a waiter or a musician put the ring on her finger.

Children seemed much more manageable in the old days when parents customarily put castor oil in their orange juice.

Mankind, despite the dismays of this world, remains incurably optimistic. Ask 10 passing people to give the meaning of life in a single word, and more than half will choose "love," "happiness," or "hope."

Against his will Self was reminded of the first six months after young Peter came. It was 15 years ago, but he would not soon forget . . . Kathryn Schneider had the trick of the good teacher, of making the experience reasonable to the student, he thought wryly. She had gone quickly on. "He didn't care. About his wife, about his son, about anything." Her voice rose, and she stopped to get control of herself, then continued carefully, "I knew that my marriage was a terrible mistake very early, but I thought that when Allen came . . ." She shrugged her shoulders. Sitting down again she faced him and said earnestly, "I couldn't go on. When I knew that I was going to have another baby, I just walked out. Bob never saw Donny. Never once."

"Why didn't you get a divorce?"

"I am a Catholic, Captain," she replied.

"How did he take it?" Self asked.

Kathryn Schneider leaned back with a weary sigh. "How would I know? I went home to my sister and had my baby. My brother-in-law got a lawyer and we got an agreement that Bob was to contribute to the boys' support."

Self asked, "How did you find out that he moved to Buffalo?"

"Bob was very irregular with his payments and Fred—my brother-in-law—kept trying to get him to be more regular. Finally, about two years after I left, Fred found out that he had moved to Buffalo. I thought that I would go in to talk to him about it."

"When was that?" Self asked.

"It must have been about five years ago," Kathryn Schneider answered. She continued without further prompting, "I should have known better; he just said 'Hello Kathryn' as if I had never been anything more than a casual acquaintance. I think he had forgotten me. And his two children."

"Did you get him to promise anything?" Self asked.

"Nobody could," she retorted. "I think I must have seen him—perhaps five or six times since then. We always had a fight; I just couldn't stand it—the way he didn't care. I haven't had a cent from him for two years. I just gave up. Don't you see?"

Self thought he did, but he said nothing. She punched the side of her chair with a sort of suppressed rage. "He would have let his sons starve. How can people like that live?"

"Well, he didn't," Self replied somewhat dryly. "Now the problem is this killing. I have to try to place people. We can't place you."

She looked steadily at him. "There's nothing more that I can say, Captain. I was home grading papers all night; doing some ironing, perhaps. The boys were asleep. No matter how many times you ask me, I can't tell you any more than that. Just grading papers. Working to support my sons." Her voice broke.

Your sons whom you carefully sent to Utica, Self thought. Aloud he said in a flat tone, "But, you

PSC Okays Phone Rate Increase

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—The Arkansas Public Service Commission approved rate increases Tuesday for the Mineral Springs, Foreman and Bradley exchanges of the Walnut Hill Telephone Co.

The rate boosts affect rural customers served from these exchanges starting May 1.

The PSC also gave permanent approval to a rate increase for the firm's Lewisville exchange. The increase was granted on a temporary basis last November.

In another case, the PSC approved annexation by the Hampton Telephone Co., of rural areas in Bradley and Calhoun counties. The new area will be served out of exchanges at Hampton and Hermitage.

Authority also was given the Banks Telephone Co., to annex rural territory near Banks in Bradley County. Hampton Telephone Co., is negotiating a buy of the Banks company.

Didn't Let the Big One Escape

NEWBURGH, N.Y. (AP)—Peter David Fekishazy, 13, didn't let the big one get away on the opening day of the New York state trout season.

Fully clothed, the boy dived into a creek and grabbed an 18-inch trout with his hands after the fish squirmed off his hook.

see, you could have driven to Buffalo and back . . ."

"In that blizzard?" she interrupted with a sort of desperate sarcasm.

"With chains," he said.

"Oh, Captain! Go out and look at the car. I don't even dare drive it to school on bad days." She pulled at her handkerchief angrily. "Please believe me. I admit that I hated him, God forgive me, I hated him for the way he treated me and his sons. But I didn't kill him." She looked at his impassive face and added, "I wouldn't kill my boys' father."

"I hope not," Self said as he stood. "I guess that's all for—oh, can you think of anything small—about two by three inches, that your husband had that was valuable?"

She looked at him hopelessly. "I've seen my husband twice in the last two years, Captain."

He nodded, and they walked the few steps to the door, the good hostess ushering out the welcome guest.

What's Doing in World of Science

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

A want ad for inventors, a new help for bank tellers, a warning about termites are subjects for science at work.

Wanted: Wireless Power

The U.S. armed forces have a new entry for the "help wanted" columns. They're asking the nation's inventors to develop a way to transmit power without wires or cables.

So reports the National Inventors Council of the U.S. Commerce Department. Prime requirements: a technique to transmit 1,000 watts of power for up to 50 miles in usable form. A transmitter would broadcast the electrical power and it would be picked up by a receiver many miles away.

Account or No Account

Ever wait for a bank teller to look up your account so he'd know whether you had enough money to cover your check?

To solve this, computers have been put to work in a new system, that would be located right in front of the teller and would provide him the desired information in two fifths of a second.

Dan M. Bowers of the Computer Control Co., Framingham, Mass., described the system last week to the Institute of Radio Engineers.

It can, he said, check the last transaction, even though it occurred only five seconds before. The first model, to handle eventually 250,000 accounts, has been designed for the Provident Institution for Savings, Boston.

Termite Time Again

After spring rains, when temperature and moisture are right, termites signal their presence by rising in swarms. They search out wood, paper or anything containing cellulose. Other signs: mud tunnels built along basement walls as the termites migrate to wooden structures.

They look a little like flying ants, says the National Pest Control Association. But they are different. Termites have thick bodies, no waistline, and four wings of equal length, while flying ants have rear wings shorter than those in front.

Some Facts Around Arkansas

By J. C. Tillman
Associated Press Staff Writer

What do you do when you win a beauty pageant? Call your folks, of course. Especially, if they didn't know you were even entered.

That's what Alice Ann Henderson did after she won the Miss Conway pageant. But she played a little joke and called collect, identifying herself only as "Miss Conway."

Mrs. Henderson insisted she didn't know any "Miss Conway." The operator insisted she did. And there matters stood until Alice Ann, a junior at Hendrix College, finally relented and gave her real name.

Then the conversation began in earnest.

"Arkansas and Art," the favorite topic of Mrs. Winthrop Rockefeller, is apparently also popular with Forrest Cilians. When Mrs. Rockefeller flew to Forrest City to talk on the subject, members of the Delphian club and guests honored her with a near capacity attendance.

Sharing attention with slides shown by Mrs. Rockefeller on the style of Impressionist Monet was an exhibit of local art.

Well, even the small fry have caught on to modern tactics of persuasion.

The "upperclassmen," fifth and sixth graders, at Nolen M. Irby Demonstration school at Conway were pretty upset at not being consulted about Arkansas State Teacher's college's decision to close the school.

"I 'bout it frankly" they were angry. Angry enough to go picketing.

So they showed up on campus with youthfully lettered placards. "We want to go to Irby, we don't like Sally Cone," Sally Cone is the new school they will attend.

The youngsters even "mobbed" a reporter and photographer at the scene with requests for help in publicizing their cause.

ASTC decided to close the demonstration school because the space was needed for classrooms to take care of increasing enrollment.

Fresh Grapefruit Perks Up Salmon Salad

Fresh Florida grapefruit are abundant and attractively priced now, and one of the many luscious ways to use the sunny fruit is in this Sarasota Sea Food Salad. The plump, juicy grapefruit sections are combined with canned salmon, diced celery and seasonings, arranged on crisp lettuce, and garnished with additional sections and tender spinach leaves. Mix up the zesty Sarasota Salad Dressing to go with it, and you'll have a healthful dish that's perfect for meatless days now and on through the summer.

How to Peel and Section Florida Grapefruit
Chill fruit before preparing. To section grapefruit cut slice from top, then cut off peel in strips from top to bottom, cutting deep enough to remove white membrane. Then cut slice from bottom. Or, cut off peel round and round, spiral fashion. Go over fruit again, removing any remaining white membrane. Cut along side of each dividing membrane from outside to middle of core. Remove section by section, over bowl, to retain juice from fruit.

Sarasota Sea Food Salad
2 cups Florida grapefruit sections, drained
1/2 cup diced celery
1 can (1 pound) salmon, drained and flaked
1/2 teaspoon salt
2 tablespoons lime or lemon juice
Lettuce
Tender spinach leaves

Drain grapefruit sections. Reserve juice to use in fruit juice beverages. Reserve half of grapefruit sections for garnish. Add remaining grapefruit sections with celery to flaked salmon. Sprinkle with salt and lime or lemon juice. Pile on lettuce; garnish with reserved grapefruit sections and spinach leaves. Serve with Sarasota Salad Dressing. Yield: 4 servings.

Installment Credit Sign in Business

By SAM DAWSON
AP Business News Analyst

NEW YORK (AP)—As welcome to many businessmen and manufacturers as the first crocus is a spring rise in installment credit. And a sizable gain is reported today. It could be a harbinger of better days ahead in the retail stores and dealers' showrooms.

If the rise in debt continues it means that the average American again is acting in traditional average American style—buying on the cuff.

In February outstanding consumer installment credit swelled by $236 million to $42.6 billion. This debt was $970 million higher than a year ago, according to Federal Reserve Board figures.

This helps offset other figures on spending and saving interpreted by some as meaning consumers are holding tight to their purse strings and preventing the economy from growing as fast as officially hoped. And the late winter gain in time-payment debt encourages those who believe that spring will see a neat upsurge in consumer spending.

The big gain in February was in auto installment credit, up $127 million to a total outstanding of $16.9 billion.

This form of consumer spending, the optimists hold, will spill over into allied fields that have their big selling season ahead. This includes a long list of recreational items ranging from boats, trailers, golf carts and vacation cottages to backyard swimming pools.

The building industry also takes heart from a rise of $2 million in February in outstanding installment loans for repair and modernization. Gains in this field have been counted upon to help offset some slackness in new home buying. Repair loans dropped in January and December, so the rise in February is doubly encouraging.

While consumers were increasing their confident assuming of monthly payments, business itself was reporting record levels in its own sales figures.

The Commerce Department reports that February saw total volume of sales in manufacturing, wholesale and retail lines rise one per cent over January to a record seasonally adjusted $64.7 billion. Retail sales, which had slipped in January, are now revised to $19.1 billion in February, up one per cent from the previous month. The record set in November was just above $19.1 billion.

On such statistics businessmen are building confidence in healthful spring activity—not as glamorous as some had hoped, but a sound and prosperous period.

Chemical Blast Leaves 4 Dead

NORWICH, Conn. (AP)—"My God, this thing is going to blow!" Philip Marcelline screamed.

Moments later, a truckload of chemicals exploded outside a storage plant, killing four firemen.

The firemen had been called to put out what started as a small fire on the truck. After the blast, the fire spread to the Van Tassel Storage Co. Additional explosions in the warehouse demolished the building.

Authorities said the initial fire on the truck probably started when a highly inflammable chemical, methyl ethyl ketone, used as an industrial solvent, spilled.

Marcelline was one of four men unloading the chemicals from the truck.

Astronauts Refuse Gifts of Homes

By RAYMOND J. CROWLEY
WASHINGTON (AP) — America's seven astronauts have had their minds made up for them: they are not going to accept $24,000 homes plus furnishings offered by the great heart of Texas.

Under gentle tutelage from higher-ups Tuesday it might be misunderstood if they accepted the spanking new houses from the Houston Home Builders Association.

None of the spacemen was present when the National Aeronautics and Space Administration announced at a news conference that the astronauts were regretfully declining the offer.

But Lt. Col. John A. (Shorty) Powers, the "voice of the astronauts," was there, as was C. Leo DeOrsey, business adviser for the spacemen.

It was DeOrsey who had decided it was perfectly ethical for the spacemen to accept the houses in Houston, which is soon to be the home of a new $90-million manned space flight center.

Then the White House, the Pentagon and NASA began to have qualms, especially after the situation was highly publicized.

So DeOrsey got in touch with NASA and received the word, which was, in effect, thumbs down. He communicated with Lt. Col. John H. Glenn Jr., the nation's first man in orbit, who passed word to the other six astronauts.

As a matter of fact the spacemen don't seem to have been very active either in accepting the offer in the first place or in rejecting it in the second. They left it in the hands of their lawyer, DeOrsey.

The NASA statement said the astronauts believe the free house offer was made in good faith, but "they now feel, however, that the motives of the people who made the offer and their acceptance might be misunderstood."

The Houston builders said that they were sorry the offer was turned down and indicate they were disturbed that the situation had caused embarrassment.

New Orleans Ordered to Integrate

By KEN DAVIS

NEW ORLEANS, La. (AP) — U.S. Dist. Judge J. Skelly Wright has thrown out an integration slowdown law and ordered desegregation of the first six grades of all New Orleans public schools next fall.

The sweeping order Tuesday brought from a Louisiana legislative leader promises of drastic action next month. Members of the Orleans Parish Board said they would appeal.

Token desegregation is now in effect in six scattered elementary schools in the city.

Wright's ruling came a week after Archbishop Joseph Francis Rummel ordered desegregation of all Catholic parochial and private schools next fall and in the midst of a furor over excommunication threats against some leading Catholic segregationists.

In addition to speeding up desegregation, Wright's order declared the application of Louisiana's pupil placement law in New Orleans unconstitutional. He did not rule on its application in the rest of the state. Every Louisiana city operates a segregated school system.

This knocked out one of the last rear-guard actions by the Louisiana Legislature. State Sen. E. W. Gravolet said legislators may have an answer, and promised drastic action, but he didn't say what that would be.

Theodore H. Shepard Jr., president of the Orleans Parish School Board, said he "almost definitely" will call a special meeting Friday to authorize an appeal.

Wright, 49, a native New Orleansian and a federal judge for 11 years, issued the original order desegregating the city's public schools. When the order was implemented on Nov. 14, 1960, white parents withdrew their children almost en masse from the two elementary schools which accepted Negro first graders.

Gov. Jimmie H. Davis took control of the city's schools in an attempt to head off desegregation, but the action was nullified by a panel of federal judges.

Last fall the number of integrated schools in the city increased to six with only 12 Negro children attending previously all-white classes.

Loan Approved

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — The Farmers Home Administration has approved a $92,500 loan to Fourche Island Drainage District No. 2 in Pulaski County to construct more than 25 miles of drainage ditches. About 12,000 acres of land will be affected by the project, which is expected to cost an estimated $238,240. Its purpose is to improve drainage in the Fourche Bayou Watershed.

$5,000 Raised for Candidate

TRUMANN, Ark. (AP) — Forty-three residents of Trumann raised $5,000 at a breakfast today as a contribution to Marvin Melton's campaign fund.

Melton, of Jonesboro, has indicated he will run for governor, and two weeks ago Craighead County residents raised between $2,000 and $30,000 for his campaign.

Melton has opened temporary campaign headquarters in Little Rock.

Stephens Doesn't Close the Door

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — W. R. (Witt) Stephens, chairman of the board and president of Arkansas Louisiana Gas Co., said today he intends to run for reelection a state representative from Grant County.

But Stephens did not close the door on the possibility that he will run for governor. There has been speculation along that line.

Of Grant County, he said, "We have a program down there to get some industry for the county and to help our community. We've been working toward those ends."

"I can be a country representative," he said. "I think maybe I'm too country to run for governor—but we'll see."

There was a report today that Stephens might run for governor, and that Arnold Sikes, executive aide to Gov. Orval E. Faubus, would be his campaign manager.

Poster Campaign Against Smoking

LONDON (AP) — The British government today launched a hard-hitting poster campaign against cigarette smoking.

More than 400,000 posters were dispatched to all parts of the nation.

The drive started as a result of last month's report by the Royal College of Physicians that there is a direct connection between cigarette smoking and lung cancer.

One Bond Bidder

SALEM, Ark. (AP) — Stephens, Inc., of Little Rock was the lone bidder Tuesday for the purchase of $100,000 worth of bonds to finance construction of a $75,000 elementary school and remodeling of other school buildings here.

The firm bid 4.5 per cent interest on the bonds, which were approved along with a six-mill tax increase by voters in December's school election.

$11 Million Profit on Trailer Deal

WASHINGTON (AP)—The government was charged $11,469,457 profit on a fleet of missile base trailers which cost $46,883,345 to build, senators were told today.

Robert F. Dunne, a staff investigator, told the story of the pyramiding profits at a Senate investigations subcommittee hearing. He said the profit shared by three contractors was about 23 1/2 percent of the actual production cost of the trailers.

He cited figures to show that less than one-fourth of the profit went to the subcontractor which actually built the trailers, the Fruehauf Trailer Co. Two other firms which shared in the over-all contract added their own fees and profits to the bill the Army paid. The subcommittee is looking into the system under which a contractor signs up for all or part of a missile project, then farms out much or all of the actual work to subcontractors. Some of these in turn put out the work to other subcontractors, with each collecting a profit.

The equipment consisted of a fleet of trailers, used as mobile housing for electronic and other items at Nike anti-aircraft batteries scattered around the country.

Dunne said the government finally wound up paying $62,970,846 for the trailers, including profits and expenses charged by the companies. He said Fruehauf's production costs were $46,883,345, plus general and administrative expenses of $2,440,910—a total of $49,324,255.

Dunne said the Douglas Aircraft Co., as the chief subcontractor, added $3,674,543, as its profit, and handed the bill on to Western Electric Co., the prime contractor, which increased it further. He said Western Electric claimed a profit of $3,275,842 plus

Bids on Plant

PINE BLUFF, Ark. (AP)—An apparent low bid of $250,000 for construction of a bag plant here for the Dierks Paper Company was submitted Tuesday by the C&B Construction Co. of Hot Springs. Completion of the 83,000 square foot building is scheduled for mid-September. Six firms entered bids on the project.

Food Sense ■ Not Nonsense

Lightening Speed—A Timely Tempo

Lightening-quick, taut, rhythmic, superb technique. Critics' reaction to Russian dancers on tour. To make Russian brains react in the same lightning way, scientists at the Moscow Institute of Nutrition are hard at work. Through diet, they hope to speed up man's intellectual activity. Their research is pointing toward a diet high in carbohydrate, as a means.

In a study of Soviet nutrition, Dr. Josef Brozek of Lohigh University has reported that Russian scientists tested diets differing in their ratio of carbohydrate to fat. One was 65 percent carbohydrate, 15 percent fat. The second was 20 percent carbohydrate, 60 percent fat. Interpreting responses as indicators of brain activity, the Soviets compared responses of their animal subjects with controls. They found that diets high in carbohydrate heightened brain activity. In contrast, diets high in fat slowed down brain activity.

Western science has not yet tried to manipulate diets to control intellectual response. In our pattern, we have sacrificed carbohydrate, indulged in more foods rich in fat. But many American nutritionists are urging a change in our way of eating in the interest of heart disease control. They recommend:

That Americans turn first to selected sources of carbohydrate rather than to foods high in fat after protein needs are met. Selected carbohydrate comes from enriched or whole grain bread and other cereal foods, skim milk, fruits and vegetables.

Another reason will be added for this recommendation if Russian research on the effect of diet on the intellect is confirmed by studies on humans.

Education Stand Poses No Threat

By GORDON BROWN

WASHINGTON (AP)—Arch W. Ford, Arkansas education commissioner, in recent testimony before a House subcommittee observed that the political fate of Arkansas members of Congress doesn't hinge on their stand on federal aid to education.

Ford testified before a House Education subcommittee in support of a bill to provide federal funds to states for elementary and secondary school education without any strings attached.

He said he doesn't believe the people of Arkansas are opposed to federal financial support to states for education provided they are assured there are no federal controls.

Elaborating, he said that it had made no difference to Arkansas voters what views their members of Congress hold on the matter—they elect them anyway.

He pointed out that Sen. J. W. Fulbright, D-Ark., has supported previous aid - to - education bills strongly as have some of the House members, while Sen. John L. McClellan, D-Ark., along with others of the delegation, have opposed the legislation just as strongly.

"So their stand on this issue makes no difference," he said. "In Arkansas, members of Congress are not elected on one issue alone."

The bill Ford supported would make outright grants to the states to be used for whatever primary-secondary educational purposes the state chooses.

Some people have objected to other pending education bills on the ground they have built-in controls which eventually would lead to federal control of state educational systems.

Under the bill Ford supports Arkansas would be allocated $1,820,468, including $4,814,000 under a proviso which would increase allotments to states where the average income is below the national average.

In addition, the bill would give the state $203,600 for education programs in cities. This would be divided as follows: Little Rock $91,989; North Little Rock $49,514; Fort Smith $45,213, and Texarkana $16,884.

Ford said that should the bill be passed the state would use $600,000 to pay the remainder of the cost of transporting pupils to schools. At present, he said, the state pays 97 per cent of this cost and the $600,000 would enable it to pay 100 per cent.

Another $2,000,000, he said, would be used to increase teacher salaries in districts not meeting a minimum level.

The remainder of the state's share, he said, then would go to the various districts to be used as they see fit—for construction, debt retirement, salaries and the like.

However—As one subcommittee member pointed out, there doesn't appear much chance for such a measure. The Kennedy administration strongly supports a bill, passed last year by the senate. The measure is now tied up in House Rules Committee due to a controversy over whether the bill should include aid for parochial schools.

Human Element Always Factor

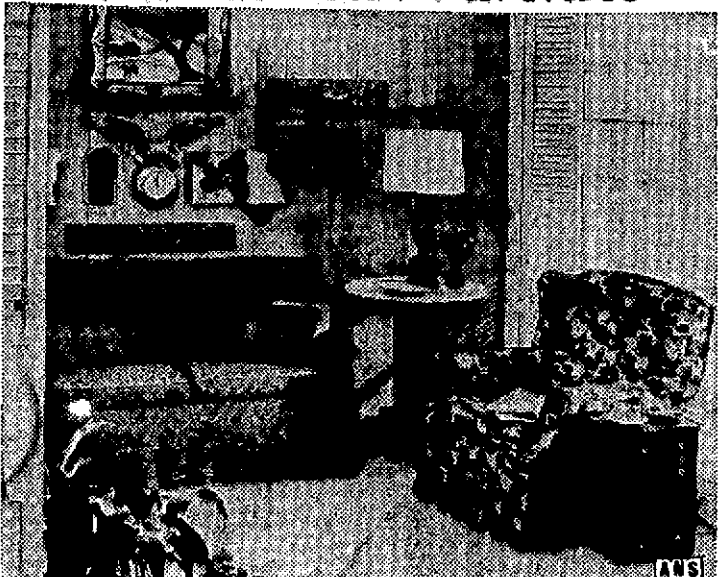

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—F. R. Oliver, Arkansas highway director, told the fourth annual conference on traffic courts and traffic safety today that no matter how good roads and automobiles become, the human element will remain a variable factor in traffic safety.

The speeder and the drinking driver can turn even the best car on the best highway into an instrument of death, he said. "The speeder is our number one killer, although he may not be on the FBI wanted list," Oliver said.

He said some people cannot operate a car efficiently if their blood content is one tenth of one per cent alcohol.

And no amount of engineering can develop roads and cars that are completely foolproof, as long as reckless people are driving.

DeGaulle Meets Italian Premier

TURIN, Italy (AP)—President Charles de Gaulle of France arrived for a one-day meeting with Italian Premier Amintore Fanfani.

The two leaders were expected to concentrate on European unity questions during their brief meeting. French officials hinted that De Gaulle wanted to press his ideas for a political confederation of the six Common Market nations—France, Italy, West Germany, Holland, Belgium and Luxembourg.

Groups of Women Strike for Peace

GENEVA (AP) — Fifty American "Women Strike for Peace" delegates joined with women from nine other national groups today and marched on the United Nations European headquarters.

About 100 women walked nearly two miles from the center of Geneva to the marble-halled Palace of Nations.

They sought to hand over a petition of 50,000 signatures to U.S. Ambassador Arthur H. Dean and Soviet Deputy Foreign Minister Valerian A. Zorin, the two co-chairmen of the 17-nation disarmament conference.

The women at first were denied entry by U.N. security police. Later, officials who had confirmed that Dean and Zorin agreed to meet the women, then tried to sidetrack them with a conducted tour of the palace.

But they gave up when the long column of women halted in the palace grounds and stood silent. They were then led to a large room to await the end of the conference session.

Dean and Zorin were presented with the bundles of petitions after two American delegates and a Norwegian had made speeches.

French Eye Election in Algeria

An AP News Analysis By HARVEY HUDSON

PARIS (AP) — French political leaders are looking beyond the referendum next Sunday on the Algerian cease-fire. Their eyes are focused on elections for a new National Assembly which are expected to follow.

President Charles de Gaulle apparently has not made up his mind yet to dissolve the Assembly. He has been talking to representatives from different political factions. But most politicians seem to take for granted that he will issue the orders soon after the referendum, which is expected to approve his Algerian peace agreement overwhelmingly.

Premier Michel Debre's government has been making announcements, or leaking dribbles of information, that make campaign ammunition. Debre has been making speeches reviewing the accomplishments of his administration.

The government has announced that the military draft term is being cut. Increased allocations for the aged are expected to be approved soon. Finance Minister Valery Giscard d'Estaing has hinted that the income tax load of two million small taxpayers will be lightened soon.

The deputies' full five-year term would come to an end late in 1963, but the end of the Algerian war seems to present the ideal psychological moment for De Gaulle to call elections. The popularity of De Gaulle and his followers should be at a record high. He obviously will want a favorable Assembly and a cooperative government as he re-orientates the nation's course at the end of almost 23 years of uninterrupted fighting in various parts of the world.

Union is the largest county in the state in area with 1,052 square miles, nearly twice the size of Sebastian which has 529 square miles.

Nothing Is Found to Back Hiss

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Justice Department said today it has found nothing to back up Alger Hiss' new declaration of innocence in his 11-year-old perjury case.

Atty. Gen. Robert F. Kennedy said the case was reviewed recently because of renewed controversy over a key point—the possession of a typewriter.

The typewriter figured prominently in Hiss' conviction more than a decade ago on charges that he lied in denying he passed government secrets to Whittaker Chambers, confessed spy courier for the Communists. Chambers, now dead, renounced communism and became a key witness against Hiss, then a top-echelon State Department official.

The case regained prominence last weekend, when Hiss said a statement in "Six Crises," a book by former Vice President Richard information Hiss was accused of passing to Chambers was alleged to have been typed.

Hiss contended during his trial that the typewriter had fallen into unfriendly hands and was used to plant evidence against him.

In the light of Nixon's statement about FBI possession of the typewriter and earlier FBI denials that it ever had the machine, Hiss says he has now support for his persistent claim of innocence.

are features at many supermarkets over the country—all excellent candidates for the charcoal chef.

Roasts and small turkeys also are featured this weekend along with stew beef, veal, and lamb legs and shoulders.

Breakfasts continue bargains, with bacon cheaper and eggs at remarkably low prices. In the Chicago area, the price of grade A large eggs has slipped to 49 cents a dozen in some shops.

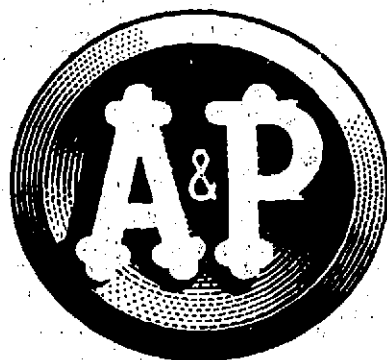

Lenten features include scallops, canned tuna, fish sticks and fish portions.

Dairy Prices continue downward, with butter off a cent or two a pound in many markets.

Fruits and vegetables remain on the high side in most markets, after adverse growing weather. This is particularly true in the Southwest and Midwest.

Vegetable features include asparagus, carrots, lettuce, onions, potatoes and tomatoes.

Some spring fruits and melons are flowing northward but prices have yet to drop appreciably. Best buys continue to be apples, grapefruit and oranges.

ODDLY ENOUGH by Waldman

Almost 1,000 public baths have been uncovered in ancient Rome! The Romans' plumbing systems—built of plumbum (lead)—were unsurpassed for 13 centuries!

An English knight invented the first modern water-closet in the 1500's. But his invention caused such little interest that 200 years passed before a patent was granted in 1775—to a London watchmaker!

Ninety per cent of the world's bath tubs are in the United States, the nation that developed modern plumbing. Networks of steel pipe supply, vent and drainage lines serve homes, industry and offices. New York's Empire State Building contains 54 miles of plumbing pipe!
